
PURPOSE OF THE CLASS

Jesus commands his followers to love the Lord their God with their whole hearts, souls, and minds (Matthew 22:37). Biblical and Theological Foundations is designed to supply students with the knowledge they need to obey Christ's commandment. Additionally, it will give students the tools to continue in their learning of the Bible and theology for fruitful lives of obedience and love to the Lord their God.

The main goal and guiding objective is to equip Christians with a familiarity and ease in navigating foundational biblical and theological concepts.

Additional objectives are to:

- Equip individuals for ministry in their local church
- Prepare individuals to potentially serve the church in the office of elder or deacon, as well as other leadership roles such as deaconess or growth group leader
- Provide a fair assessment of an individual's fitness for ordained office in the church
- Reinforce understanding of the contents of the Old and New Testaments
- Ground class members with a growing knowledge of the major doctrines of our faith
- Raise up leaders who take initiative to influence others through Christ-centered relationships

Key Terms and their Definitions

BIBLICAL AND THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATIONS

KEY TERM	DEFINITION AND SCRIPTURE REFERENCES
Regeneration	The work of the Holy Spirit to bring new spiritual life to a person without which it is impossible to enter the Kingdom of God; to be “born again.” Scripture passages: John 3:3-8; Titus 3:4-7
Justification	An act of God’s free grace, in which he pardons all our sins and accepts us as righteous in his sight, only because of the righteousness of Christ imputed to us, and received by faith alone. Scripture passages: Romans 3:21-26; 4:1-8
Sanctification	The work of God’s free grace, by which we are renewed throughout in the image of God, and are enabled more and more to die to sin and live to righteousness. Scripture passages: Romans 6:1-4; Philippians 2:12-13; Hebrews 10:14
Perseverance	Because of God’s preserving grace, all of his elect will remain in Christ all their days, will demonstrate his work in them by their fruitfulness, and will be glorified by him on the Last Day. Scripture passages: John 10:27-29; 1 Thessalonians 5:23-24
Union with Christ	The believer’s intimate relationship with Christ through faith which is the source of every spiritual blessing. Scripture passages: John 15:1-11; Ephesians 1:3-14
The Fall	In unbelief and pride, Adam disobeyed the command of God and brought condemnation, corruption, and misery to the entire human race. Scripture passages: Genesis 3; Romans 5:12
Covenant	A relationship that God established with us and guarantees by his Word. Scripture passages: Genesis 15; Jeremiah 31:33
Hebrew Poetry	An emotive literary style employing parallelism, rhythm, and imagery that is used in teaching and worship. Scripture passages: Psalm 1, Lamentations
Messianic Expectation	God promised a redeemer, a seed, an anointed one, a king, a prophet, a priest who would reconcile the creation to himself and restore the relationship lost through sin. Scripture passages: Genesis 3:15; Deut 18:15; 2 Sam 7; Is 9:6-7; 61:1-4

Incarnation	The act whereby the divine Son of God took on true humanity so that he might save us from our sins. Jesus is truly God and truly human in one person. Scripture passages: Philippians 2:5-11; Hebrews 1:1-4; 2:10-20
Resurrection	God raised Jesus bodily from the dead on the third day proving his divine Sonship and the effectiveness of his sacrifice on our behalf. Christians will also be raised in Christ on the last day to enjoy eternal life with him forever. Scripture passages: Romans 1:1-4; 1 Corinthians 15:12-22
Disciple-making Disciple	A follower of Jesus who invests him/herself in others by sharing life and the gospel with them, in order that they would do the same with others also. This is the expectation of every believer. Scripture passages: Ephesians 4:11-16; 2 Timothy 2:1-2
Trinity	The doctrine that God exists in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Each person is uncreated, co-eternal, and equal in power, glory, and honor. They are rightly worshiped as the one true God, one-in-three and three-in-one. Scripture passages: Matthew 28:19; John 14: 26; 2 Corinthians 13:14
Providence	God actively sustains and governs all created things according to his holy will, in such a way, that nothing happens in this world without his orderly arrangement. Scripture passages: Colossians 1:17; Job 37:6-13; Proverbs 16:33; Matthew 10:29-30
Inspiration	The words of Scripture are “breathed out” and spoken by God through human authors so that the Bible’s words are the exact ones God intended. Scripture passages: 2 Timothy 3:16; 2 Peter 1:21
Inerrancy	The Bible in the original manuscripts is perfectly reliable, completely true, and without error. Scripture passages: Psalm 19:7-8; Proverbs 30:5; Matthew 5:17-20; John 10:35
Imago Dei (Image of God)	God created human beings in his likeness and to be his representatives to the rest of creation in this world. We are created to know, enjoy, and reflect God’s glory to others. Scripture passages: Genesis 1:27; Ephesians 4:24
Complementary Roles of Men and Women	While men and women are created equal in image, dignity, value, and glory, they are assigned different roles by God: men are to sacrificially lead in the home and church, and women are to voluntarily submit to this leadership by using their gifts to support it. Scripture passages: Ephesians 5: 22-33; 1 Timothy 2:8-15

Total Depravity	Every part of man's nature is affected by sin, so that he cannot choose what is spiritually good apart from God's grace. Scripture passages: Romans 3:9-12; Ephesians 2:1-3
Faith	The gift of God that enables us to understand and trust in his Word and respond appropriately to it. Saving faith is directed toward Christ alone for the forgiveness of sins and eternal life. Scripture passages: Ephesians 2:8-10; Hebrews 11:1-6
Particular Atonement	The work of Christ in his life, death and resurrection to secure salvation for his chosen people. This doctrine affirms that he definitely saves those who are particularly his. Scripture passages: John 10:11, 14-16; Romans 8:28-30
Election and Reprobation	God's decision from before the creation of the world to choose some of his fallen human creatures to be saved and by his grace to become holy and blameless in his sight. In his wisdom and for his glory he passed over others, holding them accountable for their sins. Scripture passages: Ephesians 1:4; Romans 9:14-24
Sacrament	A holy ordinance instituted by Christ that is both a sign of the new covenant and a seal that applies its benefits to the believer. There are two: baptism and the Lord's Supper. Scripture passages: Matthew 28:19-20; Romans 4:11; 1 Corinthians 11:23-26
The Millennium / Amillennialism	The thousand year reign of Christ with the saints characterized by righteousness, peace, prosperity, and the defeat of Satan. Amillennialism is the belief that there is no literal millennium; that Christ reigns now in heaven and on earth through the church. Good and evil will both remain until Christ returns to destroy evil and bring in everlasting righteousness and joy. Scripture passages: Revelation 20:1-6; Ephesians 1:15-23
